

WOODPECKERS SPRING 2020

Geography

Significance of latitude and longitude on the environment, weather and habitats.

Settlements of indigenous people

Water cycle, carbon cycle.

Maths

Fractions

Long multiplication

Negative numbers

Coordinates, translations, parallel lines

Handling data

RE

Does prayer change things?

Should believers give things up?

Art and DT

Drawing - use of line

Paint - create texture and tone

Water theme - Constable

Lowry - Industrial landscape

Creating Complex structures - aqueducts

Computing

E- safety day

Use technology safely, respectfully and responsibly

Music

Violin ensemble, singing

Composers in Industrial revolution.

Science

Recognise that environments can change and be a danger to all living things. With particular emphasis on the rainforest, arctic and desert environments.

History

Understand the timings and significance of the industrial revolution.

Literacy

Water Poetry

Debate - forming opinions

Persuasion

Fiction - the raindrop.

Explanation - Water Cycle

PE

Hockey, Gymnastics, Yoga

Catchball, Cross - country

